

Diamond engagement ring checklist

Download our handy printable checklist to ensure you have considered everything you need before you visit your jeweler.

| Notes: | _ | Do you know your partner's ring size? If not, when you purchase the engagement ring, take along a ring they wear on their engagement ring finger. |
|--------|------------|--|
| | | Based on their personal style and existing jewelry, consider what diamond shape, setting type and metal color they may prefer. |
| | | Have you asked friends and family for advice on your partner's expectations and style preferences? |
| | | Have you considered your partner's hand and finger shape in order to determine which engagement ring style will be most flattering? |
| | | Have you considered which metal will be most flattering to your partner's skin tone? |
| | - | How active is your partner's lifestyle? You may wish to consider a smaller diamond if they are very active or work a lot with their hands. |
| | | Have you decided on a budget or price range for your purchase? |
| | | Would you like to buy a ring with a diamond already set, or a loose diamond so that you can design the ring together at a later date? |
| | | Are you clear on the difference between diamond cut (the diamond's proportions and finishing), and diamond shape (the outline shape of the diamond)? |
| | | Don't forget the best way to see a diamond's true natural color is to view it in daylight, against a white background. |
| | | Do you understand the varying durabilities of different metals? |
| | \circ | Ensure the diamond or diamond engagement ring you purchase is certified and from a reputable jeweler. |
| | \bigcirc | Consider getting insurance for your new diamond engagement ring. |
| | \circ | Is the diamond ethically and responsibly sourced? |
| | Fore | sider buying a De Beers Forevermark diamond. Every De Beers vermark diamond is completely natural, hand-selected and comes a promise that it is beautiful, rare and responsibly sourced. |
